

Scrum Notes

23/01/21

Yesterday we met together and talked through the brief, taking a few notes we could think o- and set ^c a time to meet today - The 23rd at 6:30pm.

- We are meeting and going over the product backlog that the product owner made.

Yesterday I made sure the product owner and developers knew their roles.

Today we are going to take a few hours to create the backlog and go over the answers to the questions we asked to the investors.

Scrum Meeting 1:

- Bruce got answers from stakeholders, and began the product backlog.
- Everybody else has polished up on their roles in the scrum as they were only established yesterday.
- Today we only have a few hours and will go through and make the product backlog up to scratch as a team (Begin Sprint Planning).
- Tomorrow we will continue with the sprint planning

so we are ready to begin our sprints on Monday.

Sprint Planning (Product Backlog):

- Bruce has begun the product backlog and received answers to our questions from the stakeholders.
- As a team we are going through the product backlog and amending it
- We are amending, taking away and adding ^{user} stories to the first draft.
- see "second draft user stories" for changes.
- 8:30pm now going through all the stakeholders question in teams to see if theres any to turn into more used stories.

△ To do tomorrow:

- Mos Cow and risk on story points and velocity
- Do sprint goal
- Do sprint backlog.
- Meeting at 2pm
- Meeting at 6pm again
